

FAMILY MEDICINE EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR

The Maryland Family Medicine Educator of the Year Award recognizes an educator who has made outstanding contributions to Family Medicine undergraduate, graduate and/or continuing education.

SELECTION CRITERIA:

1. Recognized for exemplary teaching skills and outstanding progression of abilities over several years by medical students, residents, or peers.
2. Enhances the quality of the community by being directly and effectively involved in community affairs and activities.
3. An active member in good standing with the Maryland Academy of Family Physicians (MDAFP) and American Academy of Family Physicians (AAFP).

WHO CAN NOMINATE:

- Current or Former Students/Residents
- Colleagues

TO SUBMIT A NOMINATION:

Nomination Form [Link to Form]

Per MDAFP policy, current members of the Board of Directors may not be considered for a MDAFP award while on the Board. If nominated, Board members will be considered for the award after the completion of their Board terms.

NOMINATION DEADLINE: October 1

PRESENTED AT: MDAFP Annual Meeting & Winter Refresher